ABOUT THE AUTHOR

David C. Mahood, LEED AP, is a sustainability consultant, environment writer, poet, and the principal of Olive Designs, LLC. He holds a BA from the College of Wooster and an MBA in Sustainability from San Francisco Institute of Architecture. His articles have appeared in numerous publications including Interiors and Sources, International Ecotourism Society, The Environmental Blog, NEWH Magazine, and Living Green Magazine. His poetry credits include Writer's Cramp, Fifth Street Review, and Prick of the Spindle. He published One Green Deed Spawns Another: Tales of Inspiration on the Quest for Sustainability on November 27, 2017, a book that chronicles his twenty-year path to environmental activism. This is his second book.

NOTE: Print-on-demand books are printed in ultra-short runs or only when an order has been received. This print-on-demand model of book manufacturing reduces supply chain waste, greenhouse emissions, and conserves valuable natural resources. Additionally, each of the paper suppliers are asked to be environmentally responsible as well, and not use papers sourced from endangered old-growth forests, forests of exceptional conservation value, or the Amazon Basin.
